→ The User Interface

Main Panel

This is where you find buttons to perform the following functions:

- 1 Build rooms
- 2 Buy equipment (medical, furniture, activity & decorative objects)
- 3 Open the Hospital Computer screen
- 4 Access the plan view of the hospital
- 5 Open Game Options
- 6 Change the game speed

There are also buttons to display the following important information:

- 7 Current objectives
- 8 Hospital rating

Finally, there are two readouts showing:

- 9 The number of patients currently in the hospital
- 10 Patient Deaths

Story panels

These panels allow game characters to deliver the episode's storyline and objectives.

Cash

Your current cash.

Tickertape

This line of text scrolls across the screen to keep you informed about important events and changes in the status of your hospital, such as many patients becoming unhappy or medical equipment falling into serious disrepair.

Patient Selection

When you select a patient, information about them appears at the top of the screen. You can see how far they are through their diagnosis and treatment process, read their name and condition, how happy they are and their current health amongst other things.

You can also track them around the hospital and even choose to look through their eyes!

So... You're my replacement! Hmph. Better late than never I suppose.

Room/equipment selection

When you select a hospital room or piece of equipment, a small menu appears close by. When selecting medical machinery the repair status is shown. The menu has four buttons that allow you to remove, move, customise and clear the panel.

Staff Selection

When you select a staff member, their ID tag and info appears at the top of the screen, showing their name, role, stats, current activity and the staff they most like and dislike.

The buttons on the right let you track them around the hospital and look through their eyes.

You can also direct staff members to interact with each other and with hospital props. When you select another staff member, a menu appears showing their name and the relationship status along with up to four behavior options: malice, social, fun and love. You can select any behavior from these options and the staff member you first selected will perform it on the staff member you selected second. Similarly, you can direct staff members to interact with certain props or even floor tiles using options from a drop down menu that appears after selecting the prop or floor tile.

→ Playing the game

You can play 'Hospital Tycoon' in 2 ways: these are Story Mode and Sandbox.

Story Mode

In Story Mode, you can work through twelve scenario challenges. The scenarios are arranged into three series with four episodes in each series. Each episode presents new objectives, introducing new characters, diseases and equipment for you to discover!

Sandbox

Sandbox mode allows you to set up a game the way you want it by adjusting parameters such as your starting cash and difficulty.

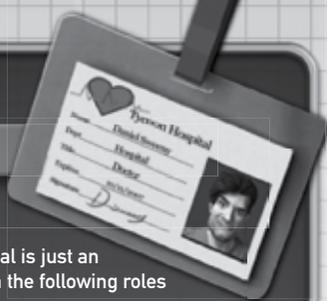

Hospital Rating

Your hospital can achieve a rating of one to five stars to show how well it is performing. The rating depends on the following:

- How well you care for patients
- How well you care for your staff
- The capability of your hospital to treat patients
- The beauty and cleanliness of your hospital

→ Staff

Staff Roles

Without doctors, nurses and other staff, your hospital is just an empty shell! You will need to hire people to perform the following roles in your hospital.

There are two main types of role: medical and support. The last 3 in the list are the support roles.

	Doctor diagnoses and treats patients		Pharmacist gives patients pills and potions
	Psychiatrist cares for patients with mental and emotional problems		Physiotherapist helps patients recover from accidents and illnesses
	Surgeon cuts up patients and sometimes even stitches them back together again		Decontamination Expert Treats patients with contagious diseases
	Research Scientist pushes the leading edge of medical research (and sanity)		Receptionist greet patients and registers them with the hospital
	Nurse cares for patients and helps doctors		Janitor keeps the hospital clean and tidy
	Pathologist performs tests to work out what's wrong with patients		Engineer keeps all those crazy machines running safely

Staff roles have degrees of seniority, depending on the Skill level of the staff member. For example, they would start out as juniors and gradually gain promotion, right up to senior.

Doctors, Psychiatrists, Surgeons and Nurses have 3 levels of seniority. Research Scientists, Receptionists, Janitors and Engineers have 2 levels.

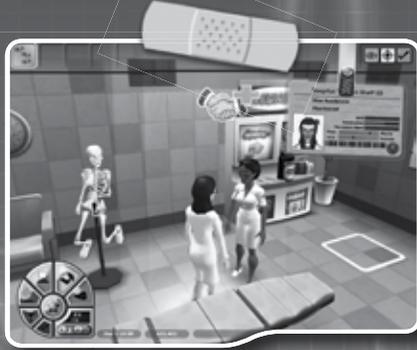

The higher someone's seniority, the more you will have to pay for their services.

Staff Personalities

Your staff members are no mere drones! Each has personality traits that influence how quickly they work, how reliable they are, how mean or playful they are and how much recreation they need.

All staff members also have a Satisfaction level, which shows how much they are enjoying their work. A staff member's Satisfaction affects the happiness of any patients with which they interact, so the more satisfied your staff, the happier the patients!

To keep your staff satisfied, make sure they have enough recreation time and get on well with their colleagues.

Staff Relationships

Each staff member has a Relationship with all their colleagues, which affects how they interact. Everyone starts in a neutral Relationship, but this changes as they work and hang out together.

When two staff members work together, their Compatibility level, (based on the overall difference between their personality traits) governs their Relationship.

When not working, their Relationship changes depending on whether they like the way the other person behaves or not.

This is where you can have some fun, as you can cause characters to perform specific actions towards others, making a doctor flirt with a nurse, for example.

Each character can perform actions from 4 categories:

- Malice
- Fun
- Social
- Love

When making their own decisions, staff members select actions depending on their personality traits and Relationship with other characters.

If male and a female staff member have a good Relationship, they may perform Love actions leading to a hospital romance!

Relationships slowly return to a neutral state if two characters do not interact.

Managing staff

As you are in charge of your hospital, it's up to you to hire and fire the staff! When you need to hire someone, make sure he or she has enough Skill and the right qualifications for the role. Take a good look at their Description too, as you want someone who can get on well with their colleagues. Don't forget to watch your budget though, as the more skilled and qualified someone is the greater their salary will be.

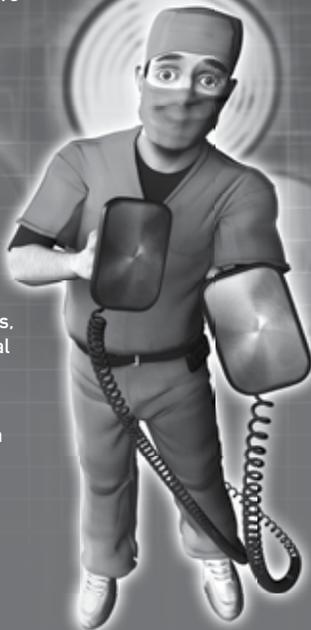

→ Patients & Diseases

In Hospital Tycoon, your staff must diagnose and treat patients with a variety of weird and wonderful diseases, not to mention dangerous infections that can spread through your hospital like wildfire if you don't take the proper measures!

How hospitals cure patients!

Although the diagnosis and treatment procedures vary depending on the disease, almost all patients go through the same overall process to cure their condition.

- First, patients enter the hospital and register at the Admissions Desk.
- Then the patient goes to see a doctor for a preliminary examination in an Examination Room.
- In most cases, the patient then goes to a diagnosis room to receive one or more tests that confirm their diagnosis.
- If the patient has an unknown condition, then the doctor examining them will send them along to the Research Lab, where the frankly terrifying Research Machine will uncover the secrets of their condition and tell you how to diagnose and treat it.
- Once diagnosed, the patient can go along to the appropriate treatment room to receive the various injections, therapies and treatments the hospital has to offer.
- Finally, the cured patient leaves the hospital and, of course, hands over a fat wad of cash!

→ Patient Happiness

If you want your hospital to have a good rating, it's important to keep your patients happy.

To do this, you must meet their needs by ensuring they have access to:

- Seating
- Toilets
- Vending machines
- Magazines & noticeboards
- A clean and pleasant environment
- Caring treatment from satisfied staff

→ Rooms & Equipment

Placing rooms & equipment

You can build rooms in your hospital by opening the Rooms Menu on the main panel. This offers 3 types of rooms: medical, staff rooms and toilets. These come in different sizes to accommodate different sized equipment.

Medical rooms have no specific purpose until you put a piece of medical equipment into them.

For example, putting a Research Machine into a medical room creates a Research Lab and putting a Medicine Cabinet into a medical room creates a Pharmacy. Removing all pieces of medical equipment recreates an undefined medical room.

→ The Hospital Computer & Curadex

You can access the hospital computer through any desktop terminal using the 'computer' button on the main panel. This opens a main screen offering the following options:

- Admissions
- Staff
- Equipment
- Treatment

Admissions

Shows you all the patients who have registered with the hospital computer.

Staff

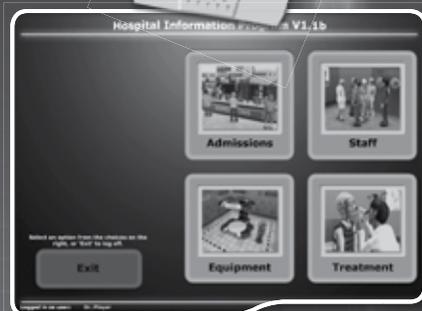

Shows all the members of staff and allows you to hire and fire staff.

Equipment

Shows the state of repair of all the medical equipment in the hospital.

Treatment

Shows the Curadex, a database of diagnosis and treatment for all the diseases you have researched so far.
