Important Health Warning About Playing Video Games

Photosensitive Seizures
A very small percentage of people may experience a seizure when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or patterns that may appear in video games. Even people who have no history of seizures or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause these “photosensitive epileptic seizures” while watching video games.

These seizures may have a variety of symptoms, including lightheadedness, altered vision, eye or face twitching, jerking or shaking of arms or legs, disorientation, confusion, or momentary loss of awareness. Seizures may also cause loss of consciousness or convulsions that can lead to injury from falling down or striking nearby objects.

Immediately stop playing and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents should watch for or ask their children about the above symptoms—children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience these seizures. The risk of photosensitive epileptic seizures may be reduced by taking the following precautions: Sit farther from the screen; use a smaller screen; play in a well-lit room; and do not play when you are drowsy or fatigued.

If you or any of your relatives have a history of seizures or epilepsy, consult a doctor before playing.

Letter from the Editor

Thank you for picking up the latest issue of On Liberty – your one-stop guide to the most exciting city in the world. No, really, thank you. It’s nice to know there are still those of you stupid enough to pay for a print copy of our magazine when you can get all the content for free online. The Internet has pretty much ruined our business model, and my vacation home in the Carraways, but we still have our finger firmly on the worryingly-fast pulse of Liberty City. From the latest restaurants to the hottest bars to the coolest clubs, our mission remains the same as it’s always been – to push you in the direction of the locations in Liberty City that pay us the most in advertising revenue. You don’t get to be a top-selling city guide by actually visiting the places that you review. On behalf of myself and all the staff at On Liberty, I’d like to wish you the very best of luck on your travels and to remind you of our special 12-month subscription offer.

Tony Mountebank, Editor
Best Sights The Top Five

So many things to see and people to do - deciding where to go can be a daunting task in Liberty City. From Middle Park to Star Junction to Firefly Island, this vibrant city is jam-packed with famous sights and landmarks.

1 Statue Of Happiness
A gift from the French at the end of the 19th century, this iconic landmark evokes a bittersweet mix of patriotism and xenophobia. >> Happiness Island off Lower Algonquin

2 Star Junction
Where the bright lights of Capitalism blink 24 hours a day. A great place to go if you like advertising. >> Burlesque and Kunzite Street, Algonquin

3 The Screamer
Too bad you can’t ride the Screamer, because what could be more fun than riding a 100-year-old rollercoaster made of wood? >> Funland off Crockett Avenue, Hove Beach, Broker

4 National Union of Contemporary Arts
What makes one man on the corner of the street a ranting acid casualty and another a performance artist? Normally just some body paint. Visit NUCA and find your place in the artistic spectrum. >> Dukes Boulevard at Bunker Hill Avenue, East Island City, Dukes

5 Alderney State Correctional Facility
Where men who “didn’t do it” discover what they are prepared to do when deprived of female contact. >> Grenadier Street, Acter Industrial Park, Alderney

It will take you weeks to even scratch the surface. Weazel News will tell you that the only people interested in Liberty City’s historic buildings these days are democracy-hating terrorists but the Triangle Building, Grand Easton Terminal, Civic Citadel and Rotterdam Tower are pieces of classic architecture not to be missed. Liberty City also boasts some of the best shopping in the world so leave some time and room on your credit card to pick up a designer suit or semi-automatic weapon.
Best Place to Chill Honkers

What better way to remind yourself that you really don’t need your ex than hooking up with your other single friends, talking about sports, ripping on each other and wandering from bar to bar, drinking beer until you pass out?

Like President Lawton’s foreign policy, Liberty City’s nightlife is always changing and people come from all over the world to experience an unparalleled range of entertainment options. From strip clubs to comedy clubs, the city offers exactly what you supposedly weren’t looking for. Explore each of the boroughs’ unique attractions and remember: what happens in Liberty City stays in Liberty City…until your friends post the photos on their MyRoom page the following morning.

For the best night out on the town, head over to Honkers in Alderney. Dry humping might be free on the subway, but there is no better way to unwind at the end of a hard day than a lap dance. You know that the girls fantasize about you afterwards just as much as you’ll be thinking of them later in your bed. Her yawn is just because she hasn’t slept for days. And the blank stare as you outline the key hurdles you face in meeting your quarterly targets – that’s awe at how powerful and manly you are.

The Best of the Rest

Why not head down to Perestroika? Travel back to a time when sawing a woman in half was still considered entertainment at this popular Russian cabaret club.

>> Tulsa Street between Mohawk Avenue and Oneida Avenue, Hove Beach, Broker

Take a trip to Memory Lanes down on the seafront. Exercise doesn’t have to involve breaking a sweat and that’s why Americans love bowling. Go for that tricky 6-9 split secure in the knowledge that you are playing a sport.

>> Located on the seafront in Firefly Island, Broker

At Split Sides, it’s not just the usual bunch of middle-aged manic depressives telling racist jokes, this famous comedy club also showcases some big-name celebrity guests.

>> Frankfort Avenue at Jade Street, Star Junction, Algonquin

Panoramic®

...all around you
Superstar Café is a winning bar-restaurant formula combining the Brits’ love of bad food and the Americans’ love of themed merchandise. Throw in some incoherently progressive jazz and a steady influx of Eastern European waiting staff who don’t speak English and can’t smile, and you have a unique dining experience in the heart of Algonquin. You’d think anybody should be able to make a good American burger - it’s just a bit of seasoned beef squashed into a patty and deep-fried - so how do they get away with charging $24?! At the Superstar Café, the price certainly isn’t reflective of the quality of the ingredients - mine had tiny flecks of blue in it - the color they spray condemned meat so it can’t get into the human food chain. Nice.

Food for the Masses

Take your lady and enjoy a sausage and a kebab at the 69th Street Diner. The pie here will warm anyone’s cold heart. Stop in for classic diner fare as you wonder why it’s on Bart Street.

Authentic Italian life at Drusilla’s neighborhood restaurant. The traditions of Italy live on at this establishment; just don’t make any mafia jokes.

247 SUPERMARKET
GO ALL NIGHT
Best Brew Homebrew Café

The best way to deal with problems is to drink through them and there are plenty of watering holes around Liberty City where you can stop off for a quick eye-opener or a liquid lunch. Many bars offer darts or pool and they all go by the motto, party ‘til she’s cute. Make some friends, meet some girls and start some fights with the locals.

On a quiet corner of Broker lurks the Homebrew Café, a small neighborhood bar with a distinctly Jamaican flavor (and smell). Assume the goat is goat and don’t ask where the beer comes from - unless you want to make it totally clear that you really don’t belong in here. This is a real local hangout and you take it as you find it - don’t even think about asking to change the tunes or complaining about the constant haze over the pool table. They take the smoking ban about as seriously as they take the local police. This is a bar where it’s very easy to lose track of time...a few deep breaths, a couple of glasses of Ragga Rum and suddenly it’s light outside and time to go to work.

>> Tutelo Avenue, Beechwood City, Broker

Bottoms Up!

Lucky Winkles is well worth a visit, and not just for the easy old skanks trying not to slip off the shiny stools. A classic Purgatory dive bar, marinated in the blood, sweat and urine of drunken laborers for over a century. A ‘hidden gem’ and ‘neighborhood secret’ that is in all the guidebooks.

>> Galveston Avenue and Hell Gate, Purgatory, Algonquin

Slug ‘em and toss ‘em at this classic Irish drinking spot where darts are available for anyone who can still walk straight. Head to the Steinway Beer Garden if you think you’re hard enough.

>> Yorktown Avenue and Morris Street, Steinway, Dukes

Don’t try ordering caviar at this tough Russian hangout in Hove Beach or you might end up with a permanent smile on your face. No one knows your name at Comrades Bar.

>> Mohawk Avenue between Bart Street and Crockett Street, Hove Beach, Broker
It’s not easy out there! I tried my normal approach tactics – walk up to somebody who looks cool and say, “Hi, I’m Tony Mountebank. I’m only, like, the editor of On Liberty…” That didn’t seem to work, which is really strange. I was surfing the internet when I noticed an ad for a dating site called love-meet.net. Intrigued to discover more about how you people actually live your drab little lives, I decided to set up a profile. Obviously, I didn’t use my real name - my fame would have given me an unfair advantage. I just put in the normal sort of personal info you’d expect: massive eight-figure salary from a cool job I love and that I can do from my laptop on any beach or yacht I choose to be on at the time, stunningly attractive Greek God-like physique and generally all-round modern American hero with amazing sense of humor. Needless to say the responses came flooding in and I got to work sorting through the muck. I chose a rich-sounding hottie from uptown and arranged to meet her in a bar round the corner from my apartment. There’s no point splashing out for cab fare home when you have no intention of a second date. Anyway, she rudely had the nerve to complain that my physique is nothing like a Greek God. I never said which Greek God and, anyway, there’s no way she was 22, more like 28. I mean, that’s almost as old as my youngest brother. What’s the point in that?

Featured Dating Site Love-Meet.net

With our busy lifestyles these days, it’s difficult to find the time to meet new people. And there are lots of lunatics out there. Much safer to hook up with random strangers through a dating site where everybody has to fill in details about themselves. That way, you can be sure to avoid the weirdos. So, get over your embarrassment. Most people are only looking for a fling anyway! Check out some of these eligible singles…

ZiT
How many times have you been listening to the radio, heard a killer track but missed the artist or song name? Usually it’s because the DJ is talking about himself again and how cool he is, or maybe a gunshot drowned out the sound just as it was announced. Either way, that frustration is now a thing of the past. Simply select ZiT from your phone menu and they’ll tell you what you’re listening to. If you’re registered to the Rockstar Games Social Club, the songs will be tagged for you and added to a shopping basket at Amazon.com as DRM-free MP3s. It’s that easy!

Infernus
Everybody knows that guys who drive flashy sports cars tend to be lacking in other areas. When it comes to engines, though, size definitely does matter and that’s why the Infernus is THE chick-magnet of the moment. Throw on a pair of sunglasses, cruise down the street and wait for the babes in pink plastic skirts and no panties to throw themselves at you. Classy.

What are you doing to us, America? Where has this sudden obsession with health come from? We don’t spend billions of dollars targeting our advertising at children just for you to fill them with liberal ideas and plates of overpriced foliage. The combined GDP of the Third World is threatening to catch up with our monthly profits and soon the U.S. economy is going to be as tattered as your lower bowel after a week of eating BS Sluggers for breakfast.

Transform and extend your Grand Theft Auto IV gaming experience with The Social Club!

The Rockstar Games Social Club (www.rockstargames.com/socialclub) is the official members-only website destination for leaderboards, stats, tournaments, ongoing special competitions, virtual events, soundtrack MP3 shopping and more for Rockstar titles – launched with the console releases of Grand Theft Auto IV in April 2008 and carrying on to support virtually all Rockstar releases to come, including this PC version of Grand Theft Auto IV.

Simply register a membership account to link your game data, then compare and compete with your friends and millions of other connected players online.
The Story Gang – This special single-player leaderboard recognizes players who have completed the main story arc of Grand Theft Auto IV, successfully experiencing the story of Niko Bellic in Liberty City up through the final mission. The leaderboard ranks players according to the total amount of playing time it's taken them to complete the story, as well as a historical rank by who has completed it first.

The 100% Club – The most elite of the elite. See who was first to complete 100% of the game. The 100% Club also carries a historical leaderboard showing rankings of who has completed 100% in the shortest span of playing hours.

The Hall of Fame – This area dynamically recognizes those players who have reached top of the hill on various statistical leaderboards, and also contains your personal trophy shelf of in-game special achievements and successes in special Social Club competitions.

The Liberty City Marathon – A ranking of special physical milestones you've achieved in the game – from the amount of miles walked, driven, or swam – to the number of bullets fired and stunt-jumps jumped.

The Millionaires Club – Recognizing and celebrating all of the wealthy seven-figure Grand Theft Auto IV players. Millionaire status is determined by totaling all of the money you've ever earned in single-player-mode from completing missions, winning races, doing vigilante side-jobs, and fortuitously picking up ‘dropped’ money in the street. See if you are a bona fide Millionaire, as well as where your single-player time to reach a million compares against all the other nouveau riche ‘business men’ of Liberty City. With three leaderboards ranked by who's become a Millionaire first, who’s done it quickest, and who is the richest in the City.

ZiT – The "ZiT" functionality is a landmark digital music shopping experience, marking the first time ever that players can shop for soundtrack music directly from a videogame itself. Gone are the days of hearing a song in the soundtrack, looking it up in the manual, figuring out which song it is, and then having to search it out for purchase online or in a record store. Now with this revolutionary service, you just hear the song in the game, tag it – and the next time you visit your profile at the Social Club, it will be waiting there for you to easily purchase as a digital-rights-free MP3 via Amazon.com’s digital music store.

Leaderboards And Stats
Go from just playing Grand Theft Auto IV, to becoming a virtual resident of Liberty City. The Social Club offers all the multiplayer statistics one could expect, with robust and detailed leaderboards particular to each mode – but also special unique single-player statistics relative to what you and millions of other people have accomplished in the game:

Multiplayer Leaderboards – Robust leaderboards for every single Grand Theft Auto IV multiplayer mode, including Car Jack City, Bomb da Base II, Hangman’s NOOSE, Team Deathmatch and more.

LCPD Police Blotter – A virtual map and tracker of single-player criminal activity logged in Liberty City from the aggregated data of millions of connected players – showing the most dangerous areas of town, most commonly used weapons and more – all updated on a daily basis.

How to Access:
As soon as you’ve purchased and played Grand Theft Auto IV or any other Rockstar title supported by the Social Club, you can gain entry into that game’s designated area of the website.

You will need to make sure that you:

(a) are logged in to www.rockstargames.com/socialclub with a registered and activated Social Club account

(b) have your Social Club account linked with your Games for Windows – LIVE™ Gamertag

(c) have played a Rockstar Games Social Club supported videogame on a network-enabled console or PC that is signed in to Games for Windows – LIVE™ so that your gameplay data can be relayed to the Social Club servers, and

(d) meet the ESRB age requirements for the game.

After these steps, the Social Club will automatically start displaying relevant data based on what you’ve done while playing the game (this can take up to 48 hours or more for game data to propagate, so please be patient).
This PC release of Grand Theft Auto IV is supported by a special, exclusive section of the Social Club, taking advantage of the in-game video capture tools. Users will be able to take video from within Grand Theft Auto IV PC, edit their footage and then upload the finished video straight to Rockstar Games Social Club TV. An integrated upload tool in Grand Theft Auto IV PC makes uploading content a snap. Both registered users and unregistered users can stop by this video section to check out all of the latest uploaded clips from Social Club members across the globe.

Other Features Coming Soon

With the arrival of the Message Wall, members will have a place to communicate, interact and talk trash with all other Social Club users. Every member will have their own personal “wall” which other users can “tag” with personal messages, as well as a variety of individual stickers and custom graffiti designs.

You will also be able to import your buddy lists from Games for Windows – LIVE right into the Social Club so you can start comparing statistics and achievements – and message them directly within the website.

With more special competitions, leaderboards, and challenges still to come, as well as features specific to this PC version release, registered players will be regularly treated to an on-going Liberty City experience via the Social Club.

Custom Match

Another exciting new feature to Grand Theft Auto IV PC is Custom Match. When you know which types of multiplayer matches you enjoy playing, you can select your options and search for lobbies that fit your criteria.

From the mobile phone, you can now choose Quick Match, Create Match, or Custom Match. The interface for the Custom Match pops up in its own screen, similar to the lobby interface.

For detailed information on online multiplayer and Custom Match, including controls and options, please refer to the NA_LAM_multiplayer_readme.pdf file included on Grand Theft Auto IV Disc 1 or visit: www.rockstargames.com/iv/pc
The all new Video Editor feature allows you to capture in-game footage, make real time edits and render those clips out as WMV movie files. The clips can also be spliced together into a video complete with post effects like music, text and transitions, and other features typically found in video editing suites. You can then share your video(s) with others to view and rate in Rockstar Games Social Club TV.

Clip Capture
At any time during the game (single or multiplayer), press the F2 key to dump a chunk of footage to your hard drive. Depending on how data intensive things are in the world at that time, the clip should be about 30 to 40 seconds long. Captured footage will be the action that occurs PRIOR to pressing F2. Note that if you have a slower machine, you also have the option to turn off this feature altogether.

Launching the Video Editor
To launch the Video Editor, call it up using your in-game mobile phone. A prompt will let you know that any unsaved data will be lost, after which you jump into a separate menu to view and edit your clips. You arrive at this screen with the following choices:
- Clips
- Editor
- Gallery
- Upload
- Online
Clips

All the raw footage you’ve captured in-game can be viewed quickly in the Clips section. There are standard DVD style controls for video playback. In addition, you can hold down the right mouse button to move the camera and view your clip from alternate angles and then update your clip thumbnail making it easy to organize your clips.

Editor

Selecting Editor allows you to create a video from your raw clips. Here you can name your video, string multiple clips together, add music, titles, and transitions.

Your raw footage clips appear on the left side of the screen. The upper right portion of the screen is the storyboard editing space. Drag and drop your clip footage into the storyboard to create a video. Double click a thumbnail on the storyboard to edit it. You can add markers within your clips which allow you to place cameras and filters, and adjust audio and speed settings.

To quickly create a video for upload, make sure you have at least one clip in the storyboard editing space and then hit the Web option in Export To Gallery.

Gallery

The section labeled Gallery contains all of the complete, exported videos. By default, the last exported video is displayed in the preview window. The thumbnails on the right side of the screen are arranged with the most recent ones appearing at the top.

Upload

In the section labeled Upload, players can submit their exported web videos to the Social Club. The left side of the screen shows local videos that you have created. The right side is a web portal displaying all the videos that you have uploaded.

Online

The Online section will minimize Grand Theft Auto IV and will take you directly to the Rockstar Games Social Club TV website using your default web browser. There you can view clips others have uploaded as well as rate clips and comment on them.

The Video Editor is a full featured tool. For more details, view the NA_LAM_videoeditor_readme.pdf file included on Grand Theft Auto IV Disc 1 or visit: www.rockstargames.com/iv/pc
You can now select your own favorite songs to play through the in-game radio station Independence FM.

My Documents\Rockstar Games\GTA IV\User Music

Note: Quicktime or iTunes needs to be installed for M4A support.

After accessing Independence FM as you would with any other in-game radio station, you will also have the following options in the Audio tab of the Pause Menu:
